One of the best things about making your home's interior smarter and more energy efficient is that when you do, you keep your energy bill down, and that means you make more money and can spend more of it on things you want. Making your home a'smart home' Smart home devices and apps can enable you to use your home to your advantage when it comes to saving money, gaining energy efficiency and reducing your carbon footprint. You can read more in more detail in our guide to smart homes. Budget-friendly projects Even if you don't feel like you can afford to make your house more eco-friendly, you can always make small adjustments, like replacing light bulbs, installing under-floor heating or installing wood-effect heaters.

Q: How to parse Date from TextBox I am trying to parse a date from a textbox in a windows phone 8 application. I am using msxml. But in windows phone 8 parse method doesn't work. And this is very reason I am using xml I used this method for parsing date in windows phone: `var dateDate = DateTime.Parse(x.Element("value").Value);`

A: This is the correct XPath:
`//text()[contains(., 'yyyy-MM-dd')]` In C#:
